Godshall Adds Talent Assessment Resources to Services

GREENVILLE, S.C. – Godshall Professional Recruiting and Staffing (Godshall) added a Talent Assessment Resources Team to the company. This new team will help ensure that clients hire the best candidates, develop a viable internal talent pool and retain valuable employees. Mary Wray Conner will serve as director of talent assessment resources.

The new team will help organizations make the most effective decisions regarding employees, from selection and retention to development and promotion. In today’s competitive business environment, it is essential that organizations maximize their strategic efficiency to ensure the most profitable bottom line.

Conner, who was recruited by Godshall to lead the new team, has more than 30 years experience working with a variety of businesses, non-profits, and ministries. She is a certified DISC (Dominance, Inducement, Submission and Compliance) Assessment Consultant & Trainer. Conner offers expertise on improving employee performance and productivity.

“My expertise is helping organizations connect with the proper talent resources, enabling them to grow and maximize their potential through successful talent placement, development and retention,” said Conner. “Through my DISC training, I have a unique understanding of people and how to achieve the highest level of successful communication through solid relationship building, as well as conflict resolution and team building.”

Founded in 1968, Godshall provides a complete range of temporary, contract and direct hiring services through specialty teams that focus on specific areas of recruiting and placement. These areas include technical, professional, financial, legal, manufacturing and healthcare. The Greenville, SC-based company is a certified 100% woman-owned business by the Women’s Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC), and a member of National Personnel Associates and TempNet, the International Network of Independent Staffing Services.
