WAYNE GODSHALL, JULIE BROWN GUEST LECTURERS AT CLEMSON’S COLLEGE OF BUSINESS AND BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE

GREENVILLE, SC – Godshall Founder Wayne Godshall and President Julie Godshall Brown recently served as guest lecturers at Clemson’s College of Business and Behavioral Science. The first- and second-generation owners of the Greenville-based professional recruiting, staffing and human resources consulting company addressed the college’s Executive Leadership and Entrepreneurship class, sharing their practical experiences of starting, owning and leading a business.

Godshall founded Godshall & Godshall Personnel Consultants Inc. in 1968, with the textile industry being its primary focus. Brown bought the business in 2004 and gained certification as a woman-owned business enterprise by the Women's Business Enterprise. Today, Godshall provides a complete range of temporary, contract, and direct hiring services through specialty teams that focus on specific areas of recruiting and placement. Those areas include: Accounting, financing, human resources and information technology; Legal, medical and insurance; Administrative, banking, sales and customer service; Technology and engineering; and Manufacturing.
